

OXFORDSHIRE COMMUNITY CHURCHES

INTRODUCTION

Oxfordshire Community Churches have church congregations working with communities all across Oxfordshire. From Banbury in the North to Henley in the South, and from Witney in the West to the city of Oxford, the churches have grown up over the last 40 years. These churches have a charismatic, evangelical perspective which values community involvement and serving local primary and secondary schools. They have many skilled pastors, teachers, youth workers and volunteers who they can recommend for taking sessions for you at your school. They are willing to run events, take a class lesson, or to play a smaller role as part of a panel to be quizzed on Christian views, for example on RSE. If you want a friendly, inclusive, informed, free, Christian perspective do not hesitate to contact us.
